

Charity Guidelines

The Adelaide Central Market endeavours to support South Australian charitable and not for profit organisations that aligns with our core values, by providing fundraising areas for collections, at no cost. The Adelaide Central Market Authority will consider requests by charitable organisations on a case by case basis for special occasion and adhoc bookings.

Access to the Adelaide Central Market for charitable organisations will be offered, subject to:

- ✓ Alignment with Adelaide Central Market brand and customer values
- ✓ Locally based staff & operations
- ✓ Agreed charity collection points within the Adelaide Central Market
- ✓ A maximum of two collection days by each charity per calendar year

Bookings will be considered for approval on:

- ✓ A case by case scenario
- ✓ Special occasions considered relevant to our Market community (ie badge days, awareness raising)

Bookings will not be approved:

- On a periodic basis or repeat basis
- ✗ For signature collecting for petition purposes
- ✗ For political or religious causes
- × For raffle ticket selling
- × For flyer distribution

Charity Requirements

- The organisation must be a registered charity
- The organisation must provide the Adelaide Central Market:
- A Certificate of Currency
- o The organisation must comply with the Collections for Charitable Purposes Act 1939
- Representatives from the organisation must be identifiable at all times by way of uniform and name badge when on site
- The organisation must comply with any instructions from ACMA management or security staff at all times
- Collection activities must not be imposing on Central Market Customers and/or Staff Submission

All applications to submitted via our website, describing how your charity meets the criteria outlined in this document. Please include a copy of your Certificate of Currency with the submission. All general enquiries can be to be emailed to admin@adelaidecentralmarket.com.

Approval of any charitable activity within the Central Market it at the sole discretion of the Adelaide Central Market Authority.